

I think it is very important that broadcast and media ownership be controlled to prevent a number of entities from the same ownership. Even in the rural area of Liberty county, we get differing views and reporting from the local county newspaper and the locally owned radio station. It's important to have different ownership, because it certainly provides different news coverage.